WHAT ARE THE VARIOUS VENDOR TYPES AVAILABLE?

The Emporium

This space is for established businesses looking to highlight their current or new offerings. Located in our indoor Hall of Legends, it's perfect if you already have a loyal customer base and want powerful visibility. Consider it a prime opportunity to connect directly with them and showcase your good stuff.

Cantina Market

A space for food trucks and mobile kitchens set at the main outdoor food court. If you already run a food business and want to serve a high-footfall event, this is a good fit. It's built for vendors who know their menu and can handle fast-paced service.

The Bazaar

A space for small geeky businesses just starting out. Maybe you're still building your brand, or maybe you only sell online. If you want to try selling your products in person, the Bazaar provides a simple way to participate without requiring a large setup or storefront.

The Artist's Alley

For you artists who are early in your journey, this space lets you share your work with people who love art and storytelling. It's not for commercial stalls, it's for creators who want to be seen, start conversations, and grow from the ground up.

CAN I PURCHASE MULTIPLE STALLS?

You may purchase up to two Stall Spaces, Food Stalls, or Vendor Tables and combine them to make a larger space. Junior Food Tables and Artists' Alley Tables are limited to one table each.

HOW DOES FABRICATING MY OWN STALL WORK?

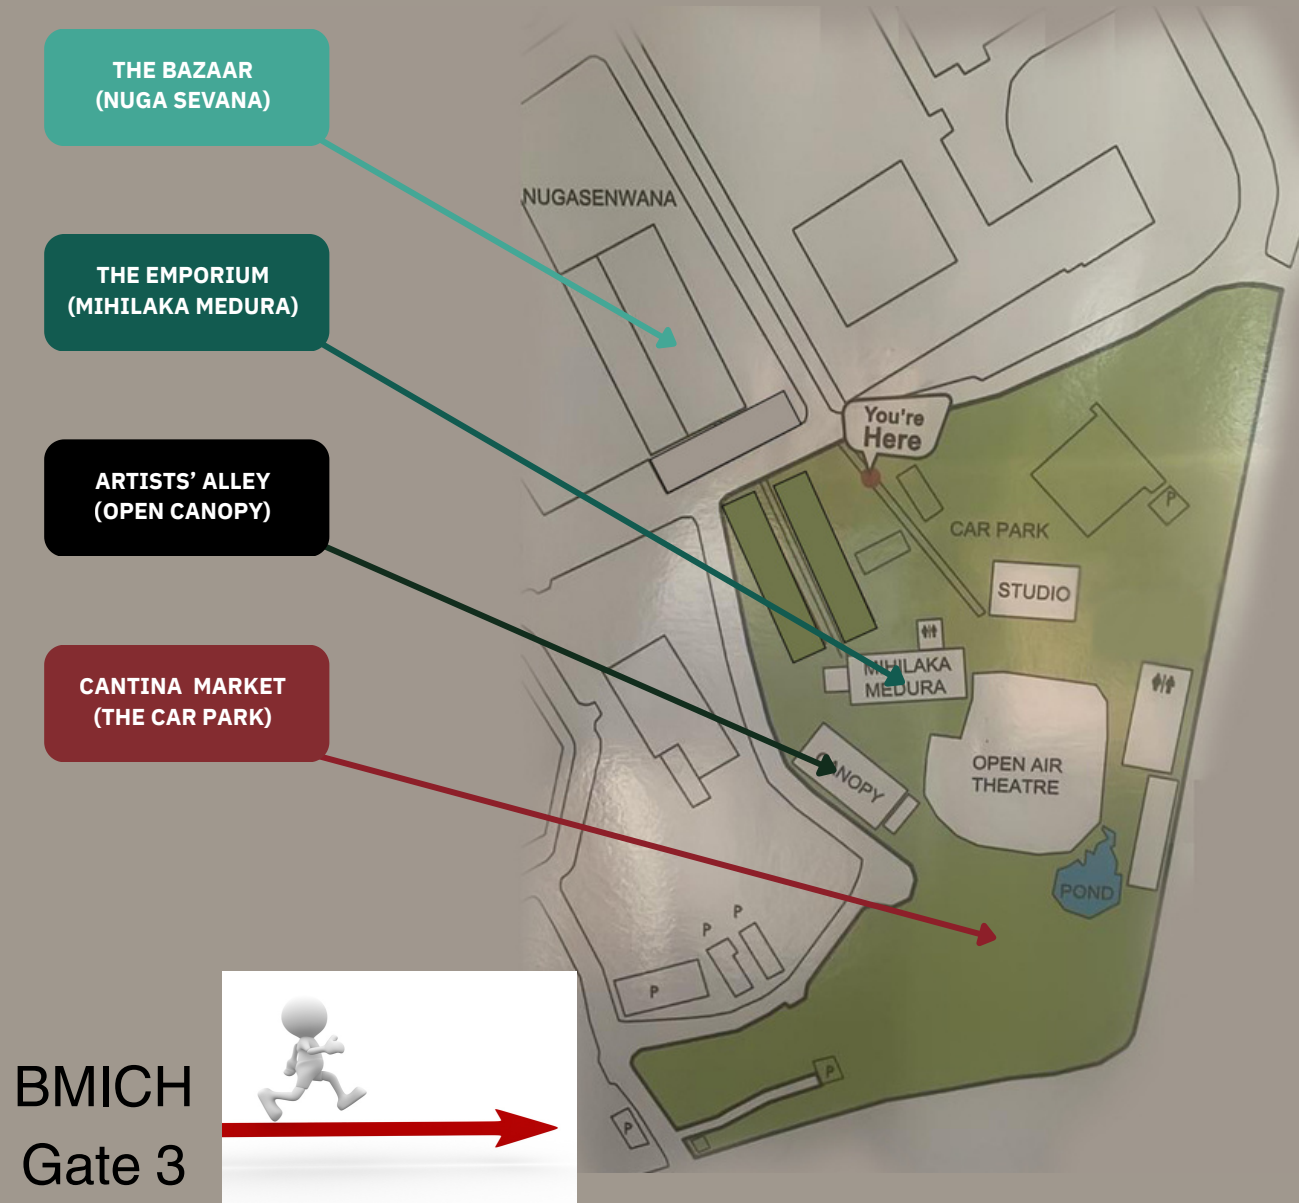

If you have purchased a Stall Space and wish to construct your own stall, you may do so. You will receive 1 power outlet per Stall Space purchased. Vendors fabricating their own stalls will still be charged the same fee. If you wish to fabricate your own stall, please inform the Lanka Comic Con team so we can share the necessary guidelines with you.

HOW DO I FIND MY STALL OR VENDOR SPACE ON THE DAY?

Floor plans for Lanka Comic Con are curated internally by the team. All vendor spaces are placed preferentially for high customer contact based on our vendors and sponsors each year and their flagship product. Floor plans for each space will be shared with you the week before Lanka Comic Con.
